50X1-HUM

1. In July 1953 in the port of Gdynia the construction of a network of telephone lines for the sole use of the WOP (Military Border Guard) was started. The work has been completed on a number of quays.

2. On each quay, at distances of about 400 meters one from the other, tin boxes have been fixed on the walls of warehouses and other buildings. In each of these boxes there is a telephone which is in direct communication with the WOP headquarters in Gdynia.
